The socialist alternative

RECENT revellations have lifted the lid on the sewer of Irish political life. High-rolling, cocaine-sniffing Ben Dunne is the millionaire former head of Dunnes Stores.

His millions were made off the backs of the low paid workers in Dunnes Stores. And yet his generosity knows no bounds.

Dunne claims to have given Charlie Haughey over £1 million. Former minister Michael Lowry got over £100,000. Ben Dunne even bankrolled Dick Spring's Labour Party.

But while Leinster House politicians and parties are bought and sold, the Socialist Workers Party stands for a very different sort of politics.

We believe production should not be organised for the profits of the millionaires and their corrupt political hangers on. Instead it should be organised for human need. We are for creating a grass-roots political movement of working class people to fight for fundamental change.

Carolann Duggan, a factory worker and shop steward who received 42% of the vote for General President of SIPTU last month, will speak on The Socialist Alternative at this Socialist Workers Party rally on Wednesday 30th April 8.00pm, ATGWU Hall Middle Abbey St.
